- 4. Public comment -
 - Mr. Vaz's comments and suggestions may be found in the May 2022 meeting minutes, located in the Administration Office
 - Ms. Alanna Maguire thanked Director Anderson for presenting the Library's concerns about the potential fees associated with public parking at the May 9, 2022 City of Plymouth meeting
- 5. Financial report and list of April's bills -
- The Book Fines/Fees account has been reclaimed and should now be able to provide accurate revenue data. Best practice in libraries is evolving into the elimination of overdue fees and only charging for lost materials. Director Anderson is monitoring this account closely to determine the impact fines/fees has on the Plymouth District Library
- Due to formatting issues, fewer checks were run this month. The issues have been resolved and checks have now been processed. These will be reflected on next month's check register
- The Library took its VEBA disbursement and has almost balanced out this fund

Resolved by Trustee Walsh; seconded by Trustee Anderson to accept the financial report.

AYES: 6 NAYS: 0 PASSED

Resolved by Trustee Walsh; seconded by Trustee Anderson to approve for payment check numbers 30721 through 30745 and April's payroll and retirement transfers, credit card transactions and monthly interest notices.

6. Director's Report -

- Physical circulation has shown a decrease for the first time over last year's data
- Data base usage increased. The release of the 1950 census created interest in the genealogy world, providing people an opportunity to research family histories
- Tax season was very busy with over 2,500 forms and booklets handed out
- Take home kits for adults were well received. Librarian Sarah Vargas received a grant to extend take home kits for low-vision patrons. The grant was made possible through Library Access Friends
- In technology, all categories, except computer sessions, did experience decreases
- Library tours, as part of National Library Week in April, received such strong community support that the tours will continue on a monthly basis
- The first in-person volunteer celebration in over two years was held with strong attendance
- The Library participated in the Mental Health & Wellness Fair at Kellogg Park and counted over 200 interactions with participants, making it the most successful outreach program so far this year
- The Library's computer server room is in need of a new mini-split HVAC system to keep the computer room at the proper cooler temperatures. Quotes were secured and a vendor selected
- Annual elevator and back flow inspections took place this month
- The Library is in the process of hiring a new cleaning crew
