

Human Library Comes to Plymouth

Discover the power of human stories at the Plymouth District Library! Join us for the Human Library event on October 1st, where you can "borrow" people instead of books and engage in meaningful conversations that challenge stereotypes, build understanding, and celebrate diversity. Learn how our friend from Northville District Library, Michael McEvoy, and others are sharing their lived experiences, providing a unique opportunity for the Plymouth community to foster understanding and empathy. Read more.

Reading Retreat - THIS WEEKEND!

RETREAT DATES: Saturday, Sept. 21 | 1-8pm and Sunday, Sept. 22 | 9am-5pm Savor the joy of discovery and the luxury of uninterrupted reading time during this relaxing, two-day retreat. Immerse yourself in a book nestled among our cozy library stacks, or take breaks throughout the day with activities designed to help you meet other readers in thoughtful discussion. Saturday will include an acoustic campfire performance after hours then come back Sunday morning and start the day with a light yoga session in the library's atrium before we open to the public. Register today.

MI Right to Read

Celebrate the Freedom to Read at the Plymouth District Library! Join us for an engaging presentation that explores the importance of preserving the right to access diverse stories and ideas. This event emphasizes the significance of intellectual freedom in libraries and the rights of patrons to read. - Wednesday, October 2, 2024 | 7pm.

Things to Know

Game Meet Up. Are you Interested? - Adults - Would you be interested to join in a game-based meetup group at the library? Please take a quick four question survey \(with no obligation.\) Tell us what games might interest you (mahjong, scrabble, pinochle, euchre, etc.) and when would be a good meetup time for you.

Salem High School's Women's Awareness Assn. is collecting period products in support of Detroit Period Project. A pink collection box can be found in the Plymouth District Library lobby throughout September. We invite your support!

Upcoming Events and Activities

Talking Hands: ASL Club: Saturday, September 21 | 10:30-11:30am Come practice your American sign Language (ASL) skills with others in the community. There will be some ASL history, some games and some great conversation. Age Group: All Ages.

Polly Letofsky at the Penn Theatre: September 23 | 7pm Author of 3mph: Adventures of One Woman's Walk Around the World is appearing at the Penn Theatre! Registration is required. All registrants will receive a ticket, which will be required for admittance. If you register online, stop at the library by 9/23 for your ticket!

Edge RPG Club: Thursday, September 26 | 6:30-7:30pm Come learn a bit about RPGs (Roll Playing Games) And go on an exciting adventure with Amazing Tales! This program is intended for Edge Kids ages 9-12. Caregivers should remain in the library. Age Group: 9-12

How Should I Structure My Business? (SCORE) | Thursday, September 26 | 6:30pm - 7:30pm Join Score mentors Mark Landau Esq, Larry E. Powe Esq and Mary McGough, CPA for a Q & A discussion on the different business types and how to structure your business. Age Group: Adults. Registration required.

Sock Monster Madness: September 28 | 1-3pm Transform ordinary socks into extraordinary monsters for a sock monster-making event! Use our socks and let your creativity run wild. Sponsored by friends of PDL. Registration required.

Skeleton Fashion Show Create an outfit for a 6-inch skeleton to display in our skeleton fashion show! Outfits can be extremely humerus or bone-a-fide couture; it's up to you! Sponsored by Friends of PDL. Kit Pick-Up: October 1-7 Show Displayed in Library: October 15-31. Age Group: Teens. Registration required.

Costume Swap Have kids': October 5 | 10am-2pm Costumes in good shape that are unwanted or outgrown? Donate them to our kids' costume swap! Drop off clean, quality costumes on hangers October 1-4 and receive a voucher in return (limit 5). On Saturday, Oct 5, redeem your voucher(s) for new-to-you costumes.

More Events

Your Library at Your Finger Tips

Easily search the collection, place holds, register for events, manage your account, and even check out materials directly from your phone! DOWNLOAD OUR NEW APP TODAY.