Building Renovation Updates

Renovations began in June and are progressing well. Last month, we launched our drive-thru service so you can easily pick up your holds, and work will continue throughout the summer. Here are some tentative dates to keep in mind:

September 1-14: Library closed for main level renovations

September 15: Main and upper levels re-open

September 15: Lower level renovations begin

October: Lower Level collections will re-open, with some areas temporarily cordoned off for the installation of the play space.

We appreciate your support and patience as we continue building the next great chapter of your library. Contact us at info@plymouthlibrary.org for questions.

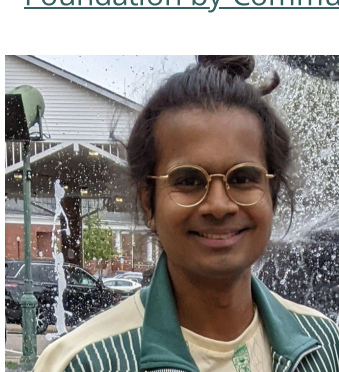

Community Journalism Club

Tuesday, July 29 | 6-8pm We're starting a community-led newspaper for Plymouth—and we want your voice in it. Whether you're into writing, photography, editing, design, or organizing, there's a role for you. Think of it as a local paper meets public journal meets bulletin board. We'll meet monthly to imagine, create, and build the newspaper together. The first meeting is scheduled for July 29 and will include learning about the club, the project and process. Over time, we hope it grows into a broader platform for local storytelling and publishing.

Check Out an Expert Spotlight- Pavan Gangadhar

This new section of our newsletter will highlight volunteers in our Check Out an Expert Program. Get your questions answered, learn about a new career, and find support from welcoming neighbors. Summer is one of the best times to learn something new or hone your skills in a favorite hobby and take it to the next level. All meetings are held at Plymouth District Library in the Dunning Reading Parlor. Support for this program comes from Relentless Care Foundation by Community Financial Credit Union.

Pavan Kumar Gangadhar
Automotive Systems, Safety & Testing Engineering Lead

Pavan Kumar Gangadhar is an engineering lead specializing in automotive systems, safety, and testing. His passion for driverless vehicles and race cars began at the library, where books and resources sparked his curiosity and love for innovation. For Pavan, the library was more than a place to read—it was a space to learn, connect, and grow. Through the Check Out an Expert program, he hopes to give back by sharing his knowledge and encouraging others to explore, ask questions, and stay curious.

Our Community

School Supply Collection: Plymouth Community United Way is collecting new notebooks, pencils, backpacks, and other school supplies to support students of all ages in the Plymouth-Canton school area. Donations can be made in the library lobby now until August 8. For specific items needed, visit www.plymouthunitedway.org.

August Blood Drive: Give the gift of life—donate blood at our upcoming Red Cross Blood Drive, Friday, August 8 from 10am to 4pm at Plymouth District Library. Your donation can help save lives. To sign up to donate blood, visit www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/find-drive and (code: plylibrary) or call 1-800-RED-CROSS.

Meeting Room Closures - September: Local groups who make use of the library's meeting rooms should be advised that meeting rooms will be unavailable from September 1-21 due to library renovation and closure.

American Disability Act Booklist and More

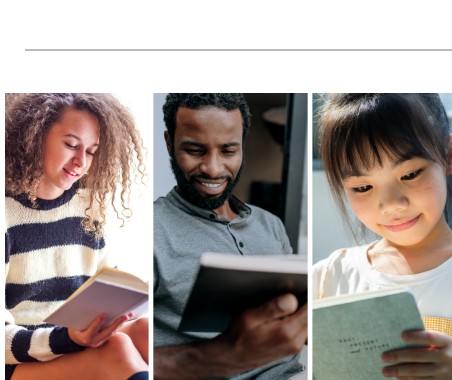

In July, we recognize the 35th anniversary of the American Disability Act (ADA). The ADA was a major milestone in the fight for equality. It prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities in all areas of public life. Its passage marked the beginning of a more inclusive society—one where people with disabilities have the right to fully participate in daily life, barrier-free.
