

Smartphone apps that can be helpful to the vision-impaired:

Aira Explorer

The free Aira app provides on-demand remote visual interpreting for the blind and low vision community to enhance independence. Connect with a trained visual interpreter to accomplish a large number of tasks.

Apple iOS

BARD mobile

Free app from the National Library Services for the blind and print disabled. Search for over 150,000 books and magazines to download and play on your mobile device.

Apple iOS Android

Be My Eyes & Be My AI

Be My Eyes connects blind or low vision users who want assistance, with volunteers and companies across the world, through live video or with AI.

Live Assistance: Users can initiate video calls with volunteers from over 150 countries in nearly 200 languages.

Be My AI: This AI assistant provides detailed image descriptions and answers follow-up questions in 36 languages, enhancing user independence.

Service Directory: Speak directly to customer support from various companies, like Microsoft and Hilton, to receive specialized assistance with their products and services.

Apple iOS Android Windows

Bookshare

Free app that allows people with print disabilities, blindness, low vision, and physical disabilities to read over one million books in audio, text, or braille. You can read best sellers, educational books, children's books, and more. You need a subscription to Bookshare to download books. If you want to read braille books you will need a refreshable braille display.

Apple iOS Android

Learning Ally

Free app gets access to human-read audio books from Learning Ally. Subscription required to download books.

Apple iOS Android

Lookout

Lookout uses computer vision and generative AI to assist people with low vision or blindness in getting things done faster and more easily. Using your phone's camera, Lookout makes it easier to get more information about the world around you and do daily tasks more efficiently like reading text & documents, sorting mail, putting away groceries, and more. (Android only)

Android

Seeing AI

This free app that narrates the world around you. The app can recognize currency, read text, read product codes, identify faces, and more. Designed with and for the blind and low vision community, this ongoing research project harnesses the power of AI to open up the visual world. The app continues to evolve with AI advances.

Apple iOS Android

Voice dream Reader

Free app that works with Voiceover to read aloud these formats PDF, plain text, MS Word, MS PowerPoint, RTF, and Google Docs. Built-in scanner to scan documents. Works with Bookshare books, audio books in Mp3, MP4, or zipped MP3 and EPUB eBooks. (Apple only)

Apple iOS