Election Results: The Official Cookie of Plymouth

Library Board Meeting Tonight Will Host Official Proclamation

The Great Plymouth Cookie Vote was a large, months-long project designed by librarians Nicole Munson and Lily Wiest, with a goal to promote civic engagement and get people thinking about electoral politics ahead of the midterm elections. Prior to the vote itself on October 10, related programming took place at the library, including a presentation by the League of Women Voters, a Schoolhouse Rock Marathon, Crafternoon, and book clubs.

On October 10, nearly 200 patrons arrived to taste-test candidates' creations and vote for the cookie they felt most accurately represented Plymouth (and had the strongest impact on their taste buds!).

Click on the "Read More" button to find out which treat earned the title of the Official Cookie of Plymouth!

Upcoming Programs and Events

Our librarians and staff create events for you to enjoy every week. Mark your calendar! The following programs and events are coming up soon:

Story Share Café: Adult Show and Tell
Thursday, October 22, 2026
10:30 AM - 11:30 AM
What good is a story if it's not shared? Join us to enjoy reminiscing with others over a cup of java. Our format is casual, kind conversation, and library staff will be on hand to help move things along as needed.

For this meet-up, bring an object that sparks memories to the event. Sponsored by Friends of PDL. Registration required.

Crow Party (Teens)
Friday, October 23, 2026
6:30 PM - 7:30 PM
Do you like shiny things? Scream when you see your friends? Remember the face of those who wronged you? You might just be a crow!

Live out your corvid dreams after-hours at the library by dressing in black and bringing a trinket for a contest and trade, and you might be crowned King Crow. Then, we'll snack like crows while making a snack for the crows, and make our own shiny keepsakes. Registration required. Sponsored by Friends of PDL.

Virtual Author Talk: Mark Groves
Tuesday, October 27, 2026
2:00 PM - 3:00 PM
If you're tired of repeating the same relational patterns and feeling like you lose yourself in your partnerships, then this event is for you! Join us for a transformative conversation with relationship expert Mark Groves as we discuss his groundbreaking book, Liberated Love: How to Release Codependency, Reduce Conflict, and Create Extraordinary Relationships.

Register for this author talk and submit questions for the author here.

Seeking Photos for Annual Veterans' Day Display

PDL is putting together our annual Honoring Our Veterans and Service Members November display. Community members are invited to drop off photos of their service member loved ones or email them to hpacheco@plymouthlibrary.org.

Note: Photo originals will not be returned, but library staff can make a copy if needed.

Requesting Android Expertise for COAE Program

Are you a self-proclaimed Android expert? Join the library's Check Out An Expert program to help serve your community!

PDL is looking for someone that is knowledgeable about Android devices and willing to meet with patrons to assist with basic Android related questions. This would be a volunteer position. Interested experts should visit our website here and fill out the volunteer application for COAE to be considered.

Surplus Items Available

From time to time, Plymouth District Library has items that are no longer fit for purpose to offer to the public. Click here to see our current available items, and fill out the form on the bottom of that page to request an item.
