Library Funding
Who pays for the Library?
Many of the 900+ people who come to the Library each day are unaware of how the Library is funded. A number of revenue sources combined cover the maintenance and utility expenses of the 54,800 square foot building, plus books, movies, music, digital learning resources, programs, staffing, and technology.

A majority of local voters in both the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township voted yes for a designated library millage in 1986, when the public library became the Plymouth District Library. An additional operating millage was passed in 1987 and 1994 as library services expanded. Almost 90% of library funding comes from local homeowner and business taxes. The remaining 10% comes from a combination of State and County funding, fees and fines, technology and furniture reserves, interest, and donations and grants. Over the last several years, Library staff has successfully expanded the pursuit of grants, donations, and corporate sponsorships. The Library's 2020 budget is available to the public—a copy can be found at the upper level reference desk and also online at plymouthlibrary.org.

Library Ice Fest Events
SENSORY FRIENDLY ICE FESTIVAL DAY
Ice Festival organizers will join the Miracle League of Plymouth and the Library in a special event on Thursday, January 9, 6 – 8 p.m. at the Library. Any special needs individual and family members are invited to enjoy live ice carving, sensory ice blocks, crafts, entertainment, and snacks. Weather permitting, a sneak peak tour in Kolping Park is planned as well.

The Miracle League of Plymouth is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing children with physical and mental disabilities an opportunity to play organized baseball. For this Ice Festival event, Miracle League families are asked to RSVP at www.miracleleagueofplymouth.com

ALVIN B. WADDLES TO BRING FATS WALLER BACK TO PLYMOUTH
Drop in and warm up as Mr. Waddles comes back on Saturday, January 11 at 2 p.m. He’ll salute the late, great “King of Harlem Stride Pianists” – Fats Waller. One of the Library’s most memorable programs from a few years back, you will enjoy favorites such as “Honeysuckle Rose,” Ain’t Misbehavin’,” “Feet Too Big,” and “Handful of Keys.”

ICY FAMILY EVENT ON SUNDAY
The Library’s youth department has a fun day planned – see page 3 for details.

Preserving Your Family Photographs
Tuesday, January 28, 7 p.m.

LGBTQ public forum scheduled
In conjunction with the Know Our Neighbor committee, PFLAG PC will be hosting a public forum on Thursday, January 30 at 7 p.m. at the Library. George Ebelitch, PFLAG PC President, will be moderating a panel of speakers addressing the health, employment and housing rights of our local LGBTQ community, support of local LGBTQ youth and how to insure our community is inclusive and supportive.

Founded in 1973, PFLAG is a national organization with 400 chapters of family, friends and allies – advocating on behalf of the LGBTQ+ community. Locally, PFLAG Plymouth- Canton chapter was founded in 2014 by loving parents and its mission is to stand in solidarity with LGBTQ+ people and their families, to act locally to support, educate and advocate for gay, trans and queer people.

Know Our Neighbor has hosted a number of informative diversity programs over the last few years. Registration is requested for this program—go to plymouthlibrary.org and click on Events.

100-Word Love Story
Up for a concise writing challenge? Submit your mini love story (up to 100 words) to info@plymouthlibrary.org by January 31. Entries will be displayed in February. (Name is optional.)

Bathtub Gin & Rum Running: Prohibition in Detroit and Michigan
Tuesday, February 18, 7 p.m.
The New York Times labeled Detroit the Rum Capitol of the Nation during Prohibition. Rum running, smuggling, illegal stills, and blind pigs sprang up within hours of the start of Prohibition in 1920 and thrived for the next 14 years. Corruption was rampant and the criminal Purple Gang took over. The booze trade was so strong the gang could tell Al Capone to stay out of Michigan, and he did. Presented by Joseph Oldenburg, Historian.

Back by popular demand Technology “Petting Zoo”
We had a great turnout last winter – so we’ve scheduled another Technology Petting Zoo for Saturday, January 4, from 12 – 5 p.m. Adults, teens, and kids are invited to drop in and try out such new technology as 3D printing, virtual reality gaming, Raspberry Pi and more. No registration required – all ages welcome.

Alice’s Ordinary People: Screening & Discussion with Filmmaker Craig Dudnick
Saturday, February 22, 10 a.m.
Alice’s Ordinary People is a documentary film about Alice Tregay—a woman who refused to stand still for injustice and brought others together to change what was. Her remarkable story spans the historic period from the marches of Dr. King to the election of Barack Obama; her great contribution in the field of politics is the thread which connects the two.

Contemporary Books Discussion Group

This group meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the Library. New members are welcome at any time. Titles are selected by the group and each month a group member moderates the informal discussion. The current title is available at the main level Reader’s Advisory Desk in the Library.

Titles for the coming months are:

December 10
Stay with Me
By Aybami Adébáyò
Yeojde and Akin fell in love and married while at university. Though many expected Akin to marry one of the many girls who had surrounded polygamy is not for them. But four years into their marriage, Yeojde is still not pregnant. When her family arrives with a young woman they introduce as Akin’s second wife, Yeojde knows the only way to save her marriage is to get pregnant. She does—but at a cost far greater than she could have dared to imagine.

January 14
A Gentleman in Moscow
By Amor Towles
When, in 1922, he is deemed an unrepentant traitor by a Bolshoi tribunal, the Count Alexander Rostov is sentenced to house arrest in the Metropol, a grand hotel across the street from the Kremlin. Rostov has never worked a day in his life, and must now live in an attic room while some of the most tumultuous decades in Russian history are unfolding outside the hotel’s doors.

February 11
The Great Alone
By Kristin Hannah
In 1974, a former Vietnam POW, suffering from flashbacks and nightmares, moves his family to Alaska to live off the grid in an attempt to find peace, restoration, and freedom. They will also face dangers, both internally and externally, as they face the ultimate test of the human spirit.

Great Michigan Read 2019-2020

What the Eyes Don’t See: A Story of Crisis, Resistance, and Hope in an American City by Mona Hanna-Attisha
Plymouth patrons will join hundreds of communities across the state participating in the Great Michigan Read 2019-20, the statewide one-book reading initiative sponsored by the Michigan Humanities Council. The Great Michigan Read aims to connect us as Michiganders by deepening our understanding of our state, our society, and our humanity.

Check in at the library or on our website for additional events and information!

Books on Tap

PDL & the Liberty Street Brewing Co. host this monthly book club, meeting to talk books, socialize and kick back with a cold one. Meetings take place at Liberty Street Brewing Co. at 149 W. Liberty Street, in the heart of Plymouth’s Old Village. Copies of the book on deck are available at the Reader’s Advisory Desk on the main level.

Thursdays, December 12 7 p.m.
Elevation
by Stephen King
Scott Carey faces a mysterious illness which causes bizarre effects on his body and makes it extremely hard to lose weight, even if he appears healthy on the outside. While battling this disease with his trusted doctor, he also tries fixing a dire situation involving a lesbian couple trying to open a restaurant surrounded by a disapproving public.

Thursday, January 16 7 p.m.
My Year of Rest and Relaxation
by Ottessa Moshfegh
A shocking and tender novel about a young woman’s efforts to write in residence of a state of deep hibernation over the course of a year on the Upper East Side of Manhattan. Our narrator should be happy, shouldn’t she? It’s year 2000 in a city agitpet with wealth and possibility; what could be so terribly wrong? My Year of Rest and Relaxation is a powerful answer to that question.

Brown Bag Books

This library book discussion group meets at noon on the fourth Wednesday of each month and is always open to new members. The group selects the books for discussion, which are available at the check-out desk during the month preceding the discussion. Volunteers from among the group lead the discussion, with background materials supplied by the librarian. Bring your own lunch or snack; the Library provides beverages. Titles for upcoming months are:

December 18
Before We Were Yours
by Lisa Wingate
Twelve-year-old Rill Foss and her four younger siblings live a magical life aboard their family’s Mississippi River shantyboat. But when their father must rush their mother to the hospital one stormy night, Rill is left in charge—until strangers arrive in force. Based on one of America’s most notorious real-life scandals—in which Georgia Tann, director of a Memphis-based adoption organization, kidnapped and sold poor children to wealthy families all over the country—Lisa Wingate’s meeting, wrenching, and ultimately uplifting tale reminds us how, even though the paths we take can lead to many places, the heart never forgets where we belong.

January 22
Less
by Andrew Sean Greer
Arthur Less will almost fall in love in Paris, almost fall to his death in Berlin, barely escape to a Moroccan ski chalet from a Saharan sandstorm, accidentally book himself as the (only) writer-in-residence at a Christian Retreat Center in Southern India, and encounter, on a desert island in the Arabian Sea, the last person on Earth he wants to face. Somewhere in there: he will turn fifty. Through it all, there is his first love. And there is his last. Because, despite all these mishaps, mixups, misunderstandings and mistakes, Less is, above all, a love story. Winner of the 2018 Pulitzer Prize for fiction.
