

Hey, That's My Monster!
By Amanda Noll
Illustrated by Howard McWilliam

Available on Hoopla <https://www.hoopladigital.com/my/hoopla>
Youtube (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hh-ju18EoG0>)

Extension Activities:

1. Emma's first monster was slimy. Make your own slime to play with at home with this simple recipe: <https://www.iheartnaptime.net/homemade-slime/>
2. Emma tried to have a tea party with her second monster. Get out some pretty cups and have a tea party with your family! Try using juice or hot chocolate if you don't like tea. Don't forget to add some tasty snacks. If you want, you can also get dressed up in fancy clothes to make it even more fun!
3. Emma also turned her second monster's tail into a shaker and had a dance party. Here is a simple shaker you can make at home: <https://www.allkidsnetwork.com/crafts/music/paper-plate-shaker.asp>
4. Emma's third monster turned his tentacles into jump ropes. Get outside and do some jumping yourself! Jumping rope is a great gross motor activity. If you don't have a jump rope, see what you might be able to use instead--maybe garden twine? A belt? Strips of old T-shirts? Braid plastic grocery bags and add duct tape for weight? Experiment!
5. Discuss bedtime. Do you like bedtime? Why/why not? What makes it harder or easier to go to sleep? Are you ever afraid at night? Would you want a real monster under your bed? Why is sleep important?