Extension Activities:

1. Find or make a fun hat and wear it today. You could even try stacking hats on top of each other like Elephant does!
2. Make grumpy and happy faces on a paper plate and use it to act out the story, changing from the grumpy face to the happy face each time the next animal gets a hat.
3. Sing 'If you're happy and you know it.' Add additional verses for different emotions. (If you're mad and you know it, stomp your feet; If you're sad and you know it, give a pout; If you're excited and you know it, jump up and down; etc.)
4. Create a package to leave on a friend's porch to make their day, like how Elephant found a package left on his front porch.
5. Discuss--what kinds of things make you feel grumpy? What are some things that help you not be grumpy anymore? What can you do when you notice that somebody else is not having a good day?
