Extension Activities:

1. Play tug of war with a sibling or parent.
2. Have some fun playing in the mud. Make some mud in a bucket or bin if you don't want a mud pit in the backyard. If you need play ideas, check out this link: <https://mothernatured.com/nature-play/mud-play-for-kids/>
3. Hopefully your car hasn't gotten stuck in a mud puddle recently, but that doesn't mean it's clean. Wash the car together--get out the hose, soap, and some rags, and have fun together!
4. This story is full of rhymes. Have more fun with rhyming words by playing this game: have one person choose a word, then take turns coming up with a word that rhymes. When someone can't think of one, they're out. Last one standing wins!
5. Glue cotton balls onto paper to make a sheep craft. Can you pull the cotton balls apart a little to shape them the way you want?
