Library Programs and Services in April:

The library reopened the youth floor for public access effective April 5 when all three floors were open for the first time since March of 2020. We continue to offer curbside service via the porch and have been seeing steady increases in our overall circulation.

Earlier this year our website was updated to reflect updates in our Strategic Plan. Visit https:/plymouthlibrary.org About PDL, and Goals and Actions. From 2020 – 2021 during the unprecedented time of global pandemic, the library has continued to strive toward meeting our mission and upholding our core values of Access, Personalized Service, Literacy and Community Destination while focusing on safety and providing high quality service. I encourage you to visit our website to view the actions taken over the last few years.

At our May board meeting we will be discussing the service changes that have been recently implemented such as decreasing our quarantine time and forthcoming changes like expanding our service hours effective June 1.

Building Update:

April was a month of preparation for future building updates including the elevator upgrade to return the cars to the nearest lower floor during power outages and the replacement of the roof top unit fan motor which will take place in April.

Director's Activities:

This month, I continue to focus on transitioning the library in preparation for my retirement in early June. Preparation for this transition started early this year. Once Melanie Bell was onboard as interim director she and I set up weekly meetings to bring her up to date and prepare her for taking over. I also continue to work along with our leadership team, in continuing to serve as COVID supervisor.

I continue to meet regularly with local library directors via TLN (The Library Network) meetings. In addition I meet with Rana and Robyn to prepare for our audit, the FOML (Friends of Michigan Libraries) and with representatives from a new event called the Plymouth-Canton Bookfest which will take place at PARC in October of 2022. In addition I helped our Friends book sale captain Donna prepare for the Friends participation in the Plymouth Artisan Event which was a very successful book sale event.

In closing out my last monthly report as director of the Plymouth District Library I would like to take a moment to recognize the staff of PDL and the outstanding commitment they have to provide high quality customer service and for how well they have adapted over this last challenging year. I knew when I started the interview process in 2013 that the Plymouth District Library was one of the best libraries in the Midwest and my time here certainly confirmed that perception. I thank the board, volunteers, staff and community for their support and wish you the best.

April department reports are attached. All reports are posted on the Library's web page plymouthlibrary.org, and print versions will be filed at Main Floor Reader's Advisory Desk.

Electronic Services Narrative

April 2021 Mary Kelly

Electronic Resources and Databases

- My April work was focused on managing the databases. For the past 2 years, I have been working to get our database renewals on a similar renewal pattern, so many of our databases were renewed and updated.
- Our vendors are doing some reorganizing, updating systems, links, authentication, statistics, etc. Most of this does not affect patron experience, however, it has caused some disruptions on the back end. Many of the products are now measuring data differently, so we should be cautious in making any conclusions until the vendors have had a chance to work through a few months. The data presented will note this where appropriate.
- All our vendors have experienced staff turnover and we have had many new representatives and contacts. This has also caused some problems with billing and required more of my time (and Robyn's) to sort through.
- Overdrive Magazines has been resolved by MCLS. The group will be adding magazines to our offerings for at least the next year, at which time we will vote again on whether to keep them. We got a great price through this consortium deal, saving us about $2,000 compared to our previous RB Digital cost.
- I attended meetings with the MCLS consortium regarding Overdrive budgets. The overall budget for the basic Overdrive collection is apportioned by use. Our use fee will be rising about 8% and the overall collection budget will be increasing by 15%. This has been planned for in our eResources budget here at PDL.
- Overall use of the electronic materials decreased for April. March was an unusually high month for Hoopla, Overdrive, Kanopy, and some databases. April's numbers are probably more in line with average use. There were also above average new users for many of these products in March.

Website/Social Media

- Website updates are continual. My focus is on keeping the site up to date and focused on the products people are using. Mel and I are examining more options to make this site more accessible and user friendly.
- Statistics for our social media accounts have been steady, although our Facebook following jumped a bit in April.

Collections

I am still moving through the computer books and updating those materials. Katie and her staff have been instrumental in reorganizing the technology materials. Cataloging in this area of the collection is somewhat problematic as technology changes.

Notes:

1 The genealogy products experience wild fluctuations depending on a variety of factors.

These are all Proquest products, which have had recent problems with statistical reporting.

2 Brainfuse reporting is now separated by the 2 products: Job Now and Help Now. March has been corrected to reflect that change. March use was likely higher because it was new, staff was training on the product, PCCS had just gone back to in-person learning, and the first promotional push was in March. May might pick back up as the school year winds down, and we've pushed it again on social media.

3 Gale Courses are on a 6 week schedule, which can make month to month stats vary.

4 LinkedIn Learning was overhauled in March and reports different numbers with their new system. March onward will now reflect this new system.

5 Tumblebooks was promoted heavily in April.

6 Wowbrary is tabulated on a weekly basis; April had 5 weeks this year

1 Flipster has been discontinued and is no longer available to our patrons.

2 Kanopy and Hoopla use was high for March. April's data reflects a more "normal" use.

Adult Virtual Programs

Virtual programs happen in real time on Zoom. We collaborated with the Northville library to cross-promote each other's programs. Attendance at their programs included, but not broken down by residency.

Technology Support Summary of April 2021

From: Melanie Bell – Head of IT

March and April saw several new vulnerabilities reported. An array of new vulnerability detection tools have accompanied most of these reports. We have performed an internal audit of our security We have made some changes from that audit including the following: changes to the firewall configuration, setup more security for tracking account creation, modification, and deletion on the staff network. Further restricted access to admin tools.

Servers and Network:

- Applied security updates to Linux and Windows Servers.
- Verified our backups and ran offsite backups
- Applied updates to all the WordPress sites.
- Ran vulnerability testing tools .
- Made changes to firewall, and setup more restricted access of admin tools, and better monitoring/notification of changes to accounts.
- Fixed some issues on the Friends website that were preventing updates from running.
- Updated the staging/development site

Public and Staff Computer

- Setup or moved three staff machines
- Ibrahim and Charlie updated staff inventory of computer equipment.
- Setup forward facing monitors to make patron interactions easier at Reference and Youth Services service desks. There was already one setup at Reader's Advisory.
- Removed some more equipment from lower level in preparation for opening the lower level to the public.
- IT staff created more documentation for cleaning shared electronic equipment

Other:

- Ibrahim and Charlie worked cleaned up the IT supply room
- IT staff (primarily Bruce) assisted with 22 Zoom sessions this month
- Attended a webinar titled What Makes a Good Policy
- Attended TLN Tech Comm meeting

Technical Services Monthly Report – April 2021

Curbside service

The number of curbside appointments continues to decline dramatically, although our circulation is steadily increasing. (Our April circulation represented a 13% increase from our March circulation.) This month, we had a total of 273 curbside appointments.

Statistics

Our technical services staff cataloged and processed 1,012 items new to our collection and placed 47 purchase orders in the month of April. We registered 120 new patrons this month.

For MeL interlibrary loan, we sent 1,017 items to other libraries, and received 1,059 items for our own patrons.
