About TLC Volunteers:

Teen volunteers will work with library staff, community members, and peers for the entire semester to develop and implement new library services and programs.

The Schedule:

Apply online – November 5 – January 5

Interviews –Thursdays evenings, January 23 & January 30

TLC Meetings - Thursdays, 7-8:30pm – February – April

Events & Outreach – May and early June

Schedule Notes:

TLC Volunteers can expect that we will meet weekly in February to discuss and decide on what project(s) we will pursue. It is likely that we will meet less often after that.

Depending on the size and scope of the work that TLC volunteers choose, the volunteers may elect to modify the scheduled meeting and work times.

Agreement

I hereby apply to become a teen TLC volunteer at the Plymouth District Library. I understand that if I am accepted, I will be expected to participate in a collaborative group project from that will be created and implemented by me and the other participants. I recognize that I can only participate if I am present and I agree to attend most of the meetings and events.
