

Clothesline Clues to Jobs People Do
By Kathryn Heling & Deborah Hembrook

Find this title on Tumble Book Library
<https://plymouthlibrary.org/2020/01/29/check-out-tumblebooks/>

Activities:

Dress up for the job you want to do! Poke around your house and see if you can find all the things you might need to wear for the job you want to do when you grow up.

Craft: Many of the jobs from this book are essential workers. Have a conversation about what makes a worker essential and how your family is benefiting from them. Make a thank you sign to hang in your window for essential workers. Make it as big as colorful as you can and write down some specific essential workers that you'd like to thank.

Visit <https://www.knowitall.org/> to find videos, interactive activities, and printables which explore all kinds of different careers. This site makes it easy and fun to search for age appropriate activities.